PRAYER

PRAYING DIFFERENTLY

Blessings of Light

Friends,
I wish you the light
that comes from tenderness given and received: it pushes back the boundaries of every night!

I wish you the light
that comes from Christ.
If you walk with Him,
receiving His bread and His word, what night could ever take hold of you?

I wish you the light
that comes from joy
when sharing is fulfilled.

If brothers and sisters are raised up in their humanity,
night loses its power over the earth!

I wish you the light
that comes from renewed dialogue, for when those who were separated speak again, day begins to dance upon the night!

Friends,
if in one way or another,
humbly, faithfully, with perseverance, a few fragments of light spring forth from your hands and from your words,
what a year of brightness this will be for the whole earth!
